

Introduction to Medical Education

Pramodh Vallabheneni, Assim Javaid and Stacey Harris

- 01:30 Introduction
- 04:30 John Milton Gregory – “One might say that he teaches best who teaches least.”
- 07:10 Teachers should be FAT
 - Faithful
 - Available
 - Teachable
- 11:25 AMEE – Essential Skills in Medical Education Course
 - amee.org/courses/amee-esme-online-courses/esme-online
- 11:40 Post Graduate Certificate in Medical Education
 - www.cardiff.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/taught/courses/course/medical-education-e-learning-pgcert
 - Other Universities offer this course too!
- 12:30 Should be looking into best evidence for medical education
- 16:35 Cases as lead in to teaching
- 20:20 Using supervised learning events effectively by giving formative feedback
 - C - Constructive
 - A - Accurate
 - S - Specific
 - T - Timely
- 23:30 Teaching ward rounds
- 25:10 Plans for paediatric teaching in Wales
- 31:30 Outro

Other useful resources for medical education are available for free from Cardiff University here:

www.cardiff.ac.uk/med-ed-how-to

You can also find a list of professional standards from the Academy of Medical Educators here:

www.medicaleducators.org/Professional-Standards

Dragon
Bytes

— PAEDIATRIC PODCAST —